10. Does the applicant accept the binding nature of Halacha as codified in the Shluchan Aruch and its commentaries?		1

When you have completed Part 1 of this form. Please give the form to an Orthodox Ordained Rabbi (from an Orthodox Jewish synagogue¹) and ask him to answer the question in Part 2 over the page. Please ask him to return it directly to the School.

¹ For a list of recognised Orthodox Jewish synagogues, please see the addendum at the end of this document. This list is not exhaustive and if you are unsure that your synagogue meets this requirement you should contact the JSSM or the school for clarification. Synagogues under the auspices of the United Synagogue, Adath, Federation, Sephardi, Union of Orthodox Hebrew Congregations, unaffiliated Orthodox synagogues & minyanim and Chabad/Lubavitch would meet the requirement of being Orthodox Jewish.

2. To be completed by an Orthodox Rabbi

Dear Rabbi,

Due to the current Code of Practice with regard to the admissions process for Faith Schools, we are requesting your help in assessing whether the above mentioned applicant meets the faith practice requirements for consideration for a place at our school under our oversubscription criteria.

Please answer the following question about the applicant:

Appendix 1 for your information only (this is not part of the admission requirements):
Hasmonean's Religious Nature

The religious nature of the school is based unambiguously on the principles of Orthodox Judaism. At the core of those principles is a recognition that both the written and Oral Torah are Divine. The principles are enshrined in the Shulchan Aruch, the Code of Jewish Law, and its commentaries, which delineate the laws, customs and values of an Orthodox Jewish lifestyle.

It is the school's aim to educate boys to conduct themselves in strict adherence to the Orthodox Jewish lifestyle throughout their lives. In addition, it is the school's purpose to provide its students, dependent on their individual capabilities, with the knowledge and skills to enable them to take their place as responsible adults in modern Britain.

The School in particular places special value on:

- a. Motivating students to engage in continual Torah study*
- b. Derech Eretz – respect for others, both within the School community and in the outside world*
- c. Integrity in all aspects of behaviour*
